The Purpose of the Workshop

This workshop introduces and explores an analysis of systematic racism with leaders from the Christian Church in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Through deep thought and conversation, participants will look at the socio-historical development of race and racism in the United States. The workshop explores the individual, cultural and institutional racism found in the systems and institutions of the United States, especially the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

The workshop begins to look at some first steps to dismantle racism in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and in society.
