RESURRECTION! Our Church Came Back from the Dead, and Yours Can, Too

Featuring Rev. Molly Phinney Baskette,
Pastor of First Church Somerville UCC in Somerville, MA
Author of Real Good Church

A Workshop for Pastors, Church Leaders and Anyone Interested in Bringing Your Church Alive!

St. Paul United Church of Christ
115 West "B" Street
Belleville, IL 62221 618.233.3303

Saturday, November 21, 2015, 9:30 am to 3:00 pm (registration at 9:00 am)

Pastor Molly is one of a group of young leaders who are emerging just at the time the Church is undergoing major changes. She invites you to dance with her as she weaves in and out of the themes of Leadership … Real Good Worship … Money, Transparency and Millennials ... and Outreach and Social Media.

You're guaranteed to leave energized and inspired to bring your church to new life!

The cost for this event, including lunch by the renowned St. Paul Culinaires, is an unbelievably low $25.00 for those who register by November 13th. After that date the cost will be $30.00

You may register for this event by mail, by email, or by visiting the Illinois South Conference website. Please make payment in advance of the event.

This event is brought to you by the Illinois South Conference Church Development Team and our church consultants, The Center for Progressive Renewal.

For more information contact Rev. P. Jerry Bennett at 618.654.2125 or jbennett@iscucc.org.

Rev. Molly Phinney Baskette is, in no particular order, a mother, spouse, recovering workaholic, cancer survivor, adventurous home cook. And oh right: she's also the lead pastor of the quirky, loveable, burgeoning community of First Church Somerville UCC in Somerville, MA, recently dubbed the hippest city in America.

She grew up in Boston, MA, and attended Dartmouth College and Yale Divinity School before moving to Colima, Mexico to teach Bible and literacy to Mexican orphans. As an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ, she has served urban and suburban churches, tiny churches and teeming churches. These days, Molly lives and plays in Arlington, MA with her husband Peter, her daughter Carmen, and her son Rafael.
