Dean of Disciples Divinity House in Chicago to deliver baccalaureate sermon at Eureka College

EUREKA – The Rev. Teresa Hord Owens, Dean of Students at the Disciples Divinity House at the University of Chicago Divinity School, will give the sermon at the 2016 Eureka College baccalaureate service for graduates at 6 p.m. May 13 in the Cerf Center. The service is free and open to the public.

Owens sermon titled "Minimum Requirements" will take its text from Micah 6:6-8, which asks, "With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before God on high." She invites students to consider how grounding themselves in both ethical and moral construct will allow them to go out into the world and contribute in substantive ways.

Owens also serves as the Senior Minister at the First Christian Church of Downers Grove and serves on the board of trustees at Christian Theological Seminary in Indianapolis. She holds bachelor's degree in Government from Harvard University and the Master of Divinity from the University of Chicago Divinity School. Her research interests focus on theological models for racial reconciliation.

For more information about the baccalaureate, contact Eureka College Chaplain Bruce Fowlkes at 467-6429.
