Jim Wallis Speaks:

America's Original Sin & Braving the Beloved Community

FRIDAY APRIL 7, 2017
1 PM

Becker Auditorium
300 East College Avenue
Eureka College
Eureka, IL

EVENT IS FREE
Register by APRIL 4, 2017 to obtain a ticket by going online to http:// cciwdisciples.org

Mr. Wallis is the President and Founder of Sojourners, editor and chief of Sojourners magazine, a best selling author with twelve books to his credit, a public theologian, and speaker and international commentator on ethics and public life.

Following the lecture there will be a panel discussion, a time for questions and reception where Mr. Wallis will sign copies of his book. The panel will feature:

Nayoung Ha – Organizing Director Korean American Resource and Cultural Center
Prairie Rose Seminole- Program Director, American Indian Alaska Native Ministries, ECLA
Jessica Vazquez Torres – National Organizer, Crossroads Antiracism Organizing & Training
JoAnne Terrell – Associate Professor of Theology, Ethics, & arts, Chicago Theological Seminary

Hosted by: Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW),
The CCIW Pro-Reconciliation Anti-Racism Team, Eureka College, The Presbytery of Chicago of the Presbyterian Church USA, and Quad City Interfaith.