CHRISTIAN CHURCH FOUNDATION
Helping Disciples Make a Difference

India Bobadilla represents Christian Church Foundation In Illinois & Wisconsin

INDIANAPOLIS, IN -- India Bobadilla has joined the Christian Church Foundation's executive staff as Assistant Vice President for Development. She will be working with individuals and congregations in Illinois and Wisconsin, joining Vice President Enrique Ocasio.

"India brings with her a great depth of knowledge and love for the Christian Church," Kidwell said. "Her professional expertise in finance combined with her personal commitment to the church, make her the perfect addition to our staff. She will serve Disciples donors and congregations with passion and excellence."

A native of Indianapolis and a graduate of Indiana University, India and her husband Jose have two sons—Gianni and Stefano.

"I'm eager to work with donors in helping them make a difference with their legacy gifts," India said. "I look forward to helping congregations in Illinois and Wisconsin positions themselves to be good stewards of those gifts, and to understand the added value the Foundation can provide."

India can be reached at (800) 668-8016 or via e-mail at indiab@ccf.disciples.org.

The Foundation is a general ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) with the mission of encouraging legacy gifts and responsibly managing endowment funds owned by Disciples ministries. It is a donor-directed foundation designed to benefit Disciples ministries and institutions, currently managing $654.8 million in assets.
