BREAK-OUT GROUPS

Check in/ Reflective questions for all groups

(Helps set the tone and gives open invitation for different voices to weigh in and test the space and their voice)

How can the statement "a movement of wholeness in a fragmented world" help us find our voice and place during this time?

Group 1 questions: (can easily identify 10 terms or less on the diagram)

1. What about this diagram rings most true to you?
2. What about this diagram rings most untrue?
3. What biblical text or imagine would you use to capture this diagram?

Group 2 questions: (can easily identify 20 terms or more on this diagram)

1. What biblical text or imagine would you use to capture this diagram?
2. Does Christianity belong on this iceberg? Why/ Why not and where?
3. Finish the sentence, I first became aware of racism when_____.

Group 3 questions: (can easily identify 40 or more terms on this diagram)

1. Finish the sentence, I first became aware of racism when_____.
2. How does this diagram challenge the statement "we are all one big human race"?
3. How has some forms of Christianity been used to uphold and support the practices used on this diagram?
4. What would reclaiming the Christian Gospel to address these social issues look like? Draw your own graph?